If you had a day all for yourself and could do whatever you wanted, what would you do? Start with waking up and describe the entire day. What would you eat? Who would you see? Where would you go? What would you do? Enter the Bethesda Literary Festival Youth Writing Contest and tell us in your own words what YOU would do on your special day!

The top essays from grades K - 3 and grades 4 - 8 will be printed in Bethesda Magazine. Essay authors will be honored, along with their teacher, at a special event held during the Bethesda Literary Festival, April 16 - 18, 2010. Winners also receive great prizes!

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

Only hard copies will be accepted (no emailed copies). Essays must be between 100 - 500 words in length. Writers must be in grades K - 8 and students of schools located in, or residents of, Montgomery County, MD. The entry form must be completed and submitted with essay.

DEADLINE: March 15, 2010 • 5pm
