Known as the Greater Washington, D.C. area's finest restaurant community, downtown Bethesda offers nearly 200 restaurants to delight visitors, residents, employees and guests. Bethesda's restaurants range from the quick bite to the gourmet and offer tastes from around the world.

Bethesda is a compact, walkable downtown that features several prominent restaurant neighborhoods. Bethesda has 17 public parking garages and surface lots, marked with a blue "P," that put you within a short walk of any downtown restaurant.

The free Bethesda Circulator transports visitors around downtown Bethesda, Monday-Friday from 7am-11pm and Saturday from 10am-11pm. The Circulator makes a loop through downtown Bethesda and arrives at each stop every 10-15 minutes.

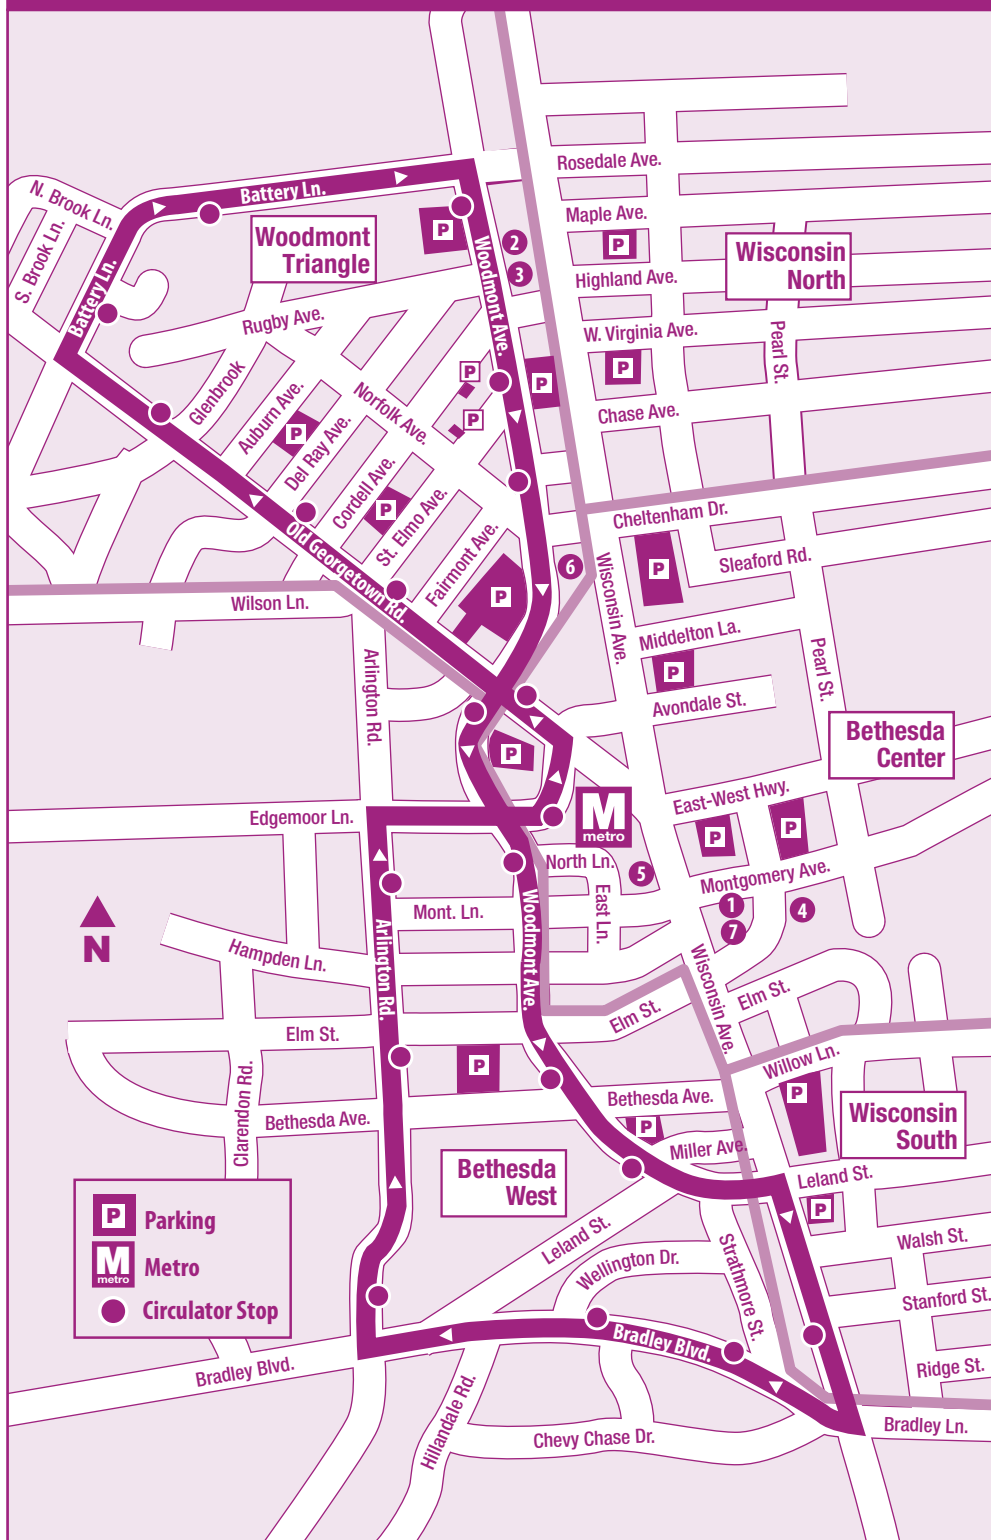

Montgomery County public parking garages and lots are easily visible with a blue "P." Garage/lot parking is available and payment is required Monday through Saturday from 7am-10pm. Payment is $2.00 per hour for surface lot parking and $1.50 - $2.00 per hour for long-term garage parking.

Parking is free in public garages/lots on Sundays and Montgomery County holidays.

On street metered parking is available Monday through Saturday from 9am-10pm for $2.25 per hour. During rush hour, on-street parking is prohibited on parts of Woodmont and Wisconsin Avenues. On street parking is free on Sundays and Montgomery County holidays.
